Latino lesbians and gay men of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area organized in the summer of 1987 to form ENLACE. The principal objectives of the organization are to work toward the abolishment of discrimination against Latino lesbians and gay men because of their ethnicity, sex or sexual orientation; to develop leadership ability among Latino lesbians and gay men; to promote Latino culture and heritage; and to build a strong political base for our community.

For further information, contact ENLACE at 3218 18th St. NE, Washington, D.C. 20018, telephone: 202/529-0722.
