MICHAEL GREER WILL APPEAR

"The lights dim, there is a brief overture by his trio (Piano, Bass and Guitar), and enter . . . Merciful Heaven, it's a drunken angel! Wait, I'm wrong, it's Tallulah Bankhead running the switchboard up in Heaven. Now that's funny. Right off the bat, the concept is hilarious and the dialogue that follows is even better. Tallulah has these two telephones, see, one is red and one is white (to guess who!). When the white one rings, Miss Bankhead answers and slurs, "Hallowed be thy name!" and on it goes. Finally, it's time for the Mona Lisa sketch. Mr. Greer dons an O'Cedar wig and the world's ugliest smock, sits in a picture frame and dishes the real dirt about history's misconceptions. It is singularly the most brilliant sketch I've ever seen."

If you're wondering what we're leading to (with this subtle introduction), The Lost and Found will present "The Michael Greer Show" for three nights starting Monday, Nov. 6, Wed. Nov. 8, and Thursday Nov. 9. In case the name escapes you, two of Michael's movie successes are "The Gay Deceivers" and "Fortune and Men's Eyes."

Mr. Greer's one man show has been widely acclaimed and we are privileged to offer this evening of entertainment to our customers.

There will be two shows each night, at 10:00 and 12:30 p.m. Tickets will be $3.00 and can be purchased at the Bar. Dinner reservations for these nights will be limited and MUST BE made in advance.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

As "Mame" would say, "The High Holy Days of Drag are upon us." In honor of this occasion, Lost and Found will hold its Annual Halloween Party on Monday, October 30th. This year we have planned a floor show, costume contests and special door prizes. In addition to the door prizes, prizes will be awarded in the following categories:

... BEST IN DRAG ...

... LOOK-A-LIKE ...

In this category, you must come dressed as your favorite movie star, comic character or famous personality. You will be judged on originality but mainly on the resemblance to the character you are trying to portray. The contest is open to males, female females, and drags (those not competing in the drag category).

... MOST SPECTACULAR ...

This category will be for costumes that are spectacular but not judged in the other two categories.

... GRAND PRIZE WINNER ...

This award will go to the best single costume presented in the three categories. The decision will be made by the judges at the end of the night.

There will be first, second and third place prizes in each category, with the grand prize winner receiving a Color T.V. Set.

For the information of those persons entering the contests, the judges have been selected from out of town and are not associated with any bar or organization in the Metropolitan Area.

No dinner will be served this evening.

Admission will be $5.00 and there will be absolutely NO reserved seats — so come early, wear a costume and have a wonderful time.

CHRISTMAS FOR CHILDREN

On Wednesday evening, December 6th, Lost and Found will host Gerry Wetzel's third annual CHRISTMAS FOR CHILDREN. This event is held for the benefit of Childrens Hospital and has been a great success in the past years. The L&F cooperating with the other Bars and Groups in the "community" will supply the door prizes and needed assistance. We would like to invite you all to bring yourselves and a present for a little girl or boy and join us on December 6. You may also wish to give a check instead of a present. Checks should be made out to Childrens Hospital. Let's make this a Christmas to remember for the Children who through illness are not fortunate enough to have Christmas at home. If you would like to assist Gerry in any way, please contact John LaMothe.

VD AND THEE

Have you heard the joke about this guy who got VD? If you haven't, it's because VD is no joke. Last year, more than 13,000 people in D.C. found that they had VD and got cured. A lot more probably got VD, but there's no report that they ever got cured of it. On top of that, probably only one person in four who got VD ever got treated for it and the other three could still be spreading VD. If you have any questions, please call VD Hotline in Washington, D.C. VD 2-7000.
