The Fourth of July. . . in JUNE??

Hoist the colors, rally round the flag, drag out your old KATE SMITH recordings and take a serviceman to lunch or better yet, bring him to the Lost and Found on Wednesday, June 28 and help us celebrate the FOURTH OF JULY. This year, the Fourth of July falls on a Tuesday, so Lost and Found has decided to hold their "STAR SPANGLED SALUTE" a few days early. This will enable those planning an extended vacation over the Fourth, to attend our biggest celebration of the year. The evening will feature a beautiful buffet, a floor show, special prizes for the best Red, White and Blue attire, and the selection of MISS LIBERTY. We will include more details in our June issue of the "Classifieds." As a fun idea for everyone attending, we would like to suggest that they wear something in RED, WHITE AND BLUE. So get it together, make your reservations early and "Come Fly With Us" . . . "The American Way" . . . on June 28th.

CHERRY BLOSSOM PARADE (It Might As Well Be Spring)

March came in like a lion . . . and stuck around for the first week in April, to help usher in The Cherry Blossom Parade and Festival, Washington's Annual Rite of Spring. As one frozen member of the Florida State Marching Band stated, "If this is spring in Washington, what the hell is winter like?"

For many of us this year, frozen or not, the parade held special significance. In the first division, struggling against a 30 mile per hour wind, 25 degree temperature, sleet and snow, Lost and Found's grand prize winning costume from Mardi Gras '72, made its way majestically down Constitution Avenue . . . (Well perhaps majestically is not the right word . . . would you believe staggered and stumbled?). Despite the weather, we made it . . . we marched the W H O L E Sixteen blocks.

The Lost and Found entourage included Donn Cluver and his beautiful companion Jessie (who, to the delight of everyone except the T.V. announcer) was mistakenly introduced as "The Princess From Mississippi." The convertible was followed by the 18 foot costume worn by John LaMothe and assisted by seven of our bartenders. It was a first for Lost and Found, a first for Jessie, and believe me, it was a FIRST for The Cherry Blossom Parade.

APPALOOSA DOES IT ON TUESDAYS

That Fearsome Foursome (better known as Appaloosa), will be playing for your dancing pleasure every Tuesday Evening from 10:00 P.M. till 1:00 A.M., starting May 2nd. They will still be appearing at our Sunday brunches and Tea Dance. If Sunday's crowds are indicative of how well this group is appreciated, you had better come early for a good seat.

CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

Congratulations to "Dianne," (Miss Hawaii) who won the title of CHERRY QUEEN at Lost and Found's First Annual Cherry Blossom Festival. The floor show and contest (which by the way, featured 36 lovely princesses), made it a beautiful evening and the audience as always was fantastic. A special word must be said for our own "Lost and Found Lovelies" (in order of appearance) RITA... ROCHELLE... ROSE... and ROXANNE. You were beautiful girls, just beautiful, a little trashy BUT... BEAUTIFUL. Thank you also to DIXIE... our own transplant from the heart of... who brought the house down with her Fannie Flagg routine. Good luck — REBA.

EMMY AWARDS (ARE NEVER A DRAG)

It's award time again and on May 13th, The Awards Club of Washington will present their "Seventh Annual Emmy Awards Show." Twenty-seven of the coveted statues will be given away in three divisions: 1. Acting, 2. Talent, and 3. Personality. Traditionally the highlight of the evening's festivities comes with the announcement of the "Award for Best Actress" but this year the contest for "President and First Lady" is also generating a great deal of excitement. The site for the Awards Ceremony will be the Quality Motel-Capitol Hill, 415 New Jersey Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. For information and tickets, call "MAME" at 920-2091. Tickets will be $10.00 for advance reservations and $12.50 at the door.

YES VIRGINIA . . . THERE IS A WINCHESTER

As we'll find out on Saturday, May 6th as once again we set sail with our "Mardi Gras Costume," for the Apple Blossom Parade and Festival in (You guessed it) Winchester, Virginia. We were honored to receive the invitation and guarantee that "they ain't seen nothing like us" in Winchester. If you have never been to Winchester during apple blossom time the drive of two hours is certainly worth it. The smell and sight of apple blossoms for miles and miles is a sight one does not enjoy too often. The Grand Feature Parade begins at 11:00 a.m. and if you have time to spare, or arrive early (or stay late), the place to go in Winchester is "Ruth's Tea Room" (I kid you not, that's the real name).

See you at Ruth's?
