WORKSHOPS & SEMINAR PROGRAMS
GAY PRIDE '72--WASHINGTON D.C.

FRIDAY MAY 5, 3 to 6 p.m.--GATHERING FOR STUDENTS AND GAY YOUTH--An eppertunity for gay young people from the DC Metropolitan area to gather, meet each other and rap about their situations. All area gay high school and college students , as well as younger gays no longer in school are welcome. Representatives of Gay Desk of the National Student Association will be present.

SATURDAY MAY 6, 1 to 6p.m. COMMUNITY WORKSHOPS ON GAY SUBJECTS, All Souls Unitarian Church, 16th & Harvard Streets N.W. A series of conferences, workshops, and seminars. Topics include:

GAYS IN PRISON--Individuals in the Gay community who are concerned about the plight of gay people in prisons are gathering to form a community task force to reach our gay sisters and brothers in area penal institutions. Rights of gay prisoners, correspondence and visitation programs, and plans for a halfway house for gay parolees will be discussed.

MEDIA--When the "media" discusses homosexuals, coverage is generally inaccurate or distorted. This session will explore coverage and presentation of gay news from the establishment and alternative media points of view. Participants include Roy Eddy, of The Native magazine staff and a representative of the Unicorn News Collective.

MILITARY--Recent cases in this area have drawn attention to situations of gay men and women given less-than honorable discharges from the military. Panelists will include principals in recent area cases who will explore the opression of gays by the military serice.

RELIGION--Gays active in legal gay churches will discuss the role of religion in Gay Life.

WOMEN--A program planned by gay women. Topic to be discussed--CONFLICT; LESbian Feminists vs. Feminist Lesbians

GAY CULTURE--A discussion of gay peoples contribution to culture;- an analysis of "camp ," a mandate for gay studies to be taught in schools. Participants will include people active in most aspects of the lively arts.

LIFE STYLES--Coming out and afterwards. How gay people life: their variety of living arragements, developing gay oriented values in relationships; alternatives to heterosexual lifestyles. Developing a gay consciousness.

THIRD WORLD--A gathering of Black Gays will discuss the relationship between Black Liberation and Gay Liberation.

LEGAL--A panel of lawyers and legal experts will discuss special legal problems of gays, and will answer questions and advise gays with special legal problems.

COMMUNITY--The concept of Gay community. Do we have one? Is it possible for Gay people to have a unified community. How does it come about?

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH--A group of enlightened doctors and spd therapists will discuss Gay health problems. Special attention will be given to helping Gays create and maintain a positive mental attitude. Question and Answer session.

POLITICS--With in outside of the Gay Movement. Role of Gays in presidential elections. Political differences within the Gay movement. Community politics involving Gay People. Participants will include Morris Kight of Los Angeles GLF, Lael Martin, Reform Democrat; Total Assault, Gay Revolution Party, Guy Charles, DCGAA; and a representative of the D.C. Statehood party.